In April 2012 The Artist's Path, a nonprofit arts organization supporting art and artists that shape our world, combines forces with The Prescott Area Women's Shelter, The Coalition for Compassion and Justice, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and Prevent Child Abuse Arizona to explore the many faces of Love in a theater event to be held at the T'is Arts Center and Gallery April 14-22.

Ten percent of all ticket income will be divided among these four non-profits. Tickets will be available online at www.TheArtistsPath.org beginning March 1 or you may call Gail Mangham, 'Path' Artistic Director, to arrange for tickets with cash or check. The Gallery's Open Seating is limited so please get your tickets early. For performance times and prices please visit www.TheArtistsPath.org or call Gail Mangham at 928-771-2554.

The Artist's Path will present an event of Music and Monologues on the theme of Love. Over 45 writers in CA, AZ, NM and TX have submitted new works. Selected musicians from the Prescott area will lend their talents to each production. A core principle of The Artist's Path is that artists be compensated for their time and talent. Path also believes in the words of composer Leonard Bernstein: "It is the artists of the world, the feelers and the thinkers, who will ultimately save us; who can articulate, educate, defy, insist, sing, and shout the big dreams."

Gail Mangham said, ”Our artists inspire us to act, but it is the people in the trenches of the non-profit world with which we are partnering who turn inspiration into food, clothing, shelter, opportunity, and security. It makes sense that we join together to create a better community.”
